

Heartbeat

Sponsorship letter

Heartbeat is a charity initiative in aid of 19 year-old Harshula Wimalshantha, the only child of his parents, and a past pupil and college prefect of S. Thomas' College, Mt. Lavinia, that focuses on providing financial support and raising awareness about his battle against cancer. It will be conducted as a 5 km charity run where all proceeds collected would be donated to his family in order support his struggle with his brain cancer.

It will be conducted on the 2nd of March 2013 beginning at 7.00 am at the Independence Square. We expect to attract around 800 participants.

He was diagnosed with a brain tumour in 2010. Since then he has undergone multiple surgeries. Although these were successful, his recent scans have shown a recurrence in the tumour.

His family is in need of financial assistance as they are unable to meet the cost of further medical treatment which has resulted in the need to organize this charity initiative.

We would much appreciate your support in the form of a sponsorship which will be invaluable in organizing a successful event of this nature.

Thank you,

Yours faithfully.
